COMMUNITY SERVICE

Community service projects are ongoing within the Guild. There is a committee that decides the projects and recipients of the items made by members each year. We support Mills Chapel Baptist Church, their ministries and sew to fulfill the numerous community needs.

THURSDAY SEWCIAL

Guild members have the opportunity to meet every Thursday except the Guild Meeting Day (3rd Thursday) at Mills Chapel Baptist Church from 10:00am -2:00pm. It is a wonderful time to share ideas and socialize while working on projects. All are welcome. Bring a lunch and join us.

SPECIAL MONTHLY PROGRAMS

In addition to educational programs, several special programs are held each year; celebration of the Guild's birthday in August, holding an auction fundraiser, and a Christmas luncheon.

WAYS AND MEANS

At each monthly guild meeting there is a drawing for quilting related prizes. This is a voluntary fundraiser. All proceeds benefit the guild. Tickets are available for purchase at the start of each meeting.

QUILTED NAME TAG

Some members wear a purple and green quilted name tag. Instructions for making one are on the website under the Patterns tab. Here is the direct URL:

FACEBOOK

Join the guild's private Facebook page "Common Threads Newnan". Members share their work, ideas, tips, even a joke or two.

VOLUNTEERS

Everything that happens within the guild happens because of a volunteer. There are jobs throughout the year that need volunteers. The guild is always looking for and needing active participants to keep the ideas fresh and the interests of all members addressed. The best way to feel like you belong is to become involved. Everyone wins when everyone participates!
